Numb. 10622.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 6, to Saturday May 10, 1766.

Naples, April 15.

MOunt Vesuvius broke out on Thursday last, with great Violence, on the opposite Side to its first Eruption; and a new Lava took its Course towards the Torre del Anunciata, between Portici and Pompeia. This Lava is really tremendous, the River of Fire being now at least four Miles in Length; and, in some Places, near Two Miles in Breadth. It has already destroyed Three Vineyards, and is continuing its Course slowly, over cultivated Lands, towards the Village of the Anunciata. The Lava, at its Source, and for the first Mile, is as rapid as the River Severn at the Passage near Bristol; but, by extending itself, cools and loses its Velocity, so as not to advance more than Thirty Feet in an Hour.

Vienna, April 23. Next Sunday there will be a grand Appearance at Court on account of the Betrothing of the Archduke Ferdinand with the young Princess of Modena. Count Fermian, who is made Ambassador on this Occasion, will on that Day, in the Archduke's Name, publickly ask for this Princess in Marriage of the Duke her Grandfather at Milan.

The French Ambassador is preparing for his Return to France; and M. d'Urfort, who resided formerly at Venice, and at the Court of Naples in that Character, is to succeed him.

M. Moser, Minister from the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, has had his Audience of Leave, and will shortly set out for that Place.

Four Regiments are ordered to march from Stiria, and one from Upper Austria, into Bohemia, where they are to join the other Troops that are to form the Camps there this Summer.

Last Week arrived here Signor Senator Sbarra and Signor Montecatini, with four Gentlemen that accompany them, as Ambassadors from the Republick of Lucca. They come with Compliments of Condolance on the Death of the late Emperor, and of Congratulation on the Accession of his present Imperial Majesty.

Berlin, April 29. Yesterday Count Malzham, Chamberlain to his Prussian Majesty, and his Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of London, set out from this Place, with his Family, for England, by the Way of Hanover.

Brussels, May 2. The Officers, who have been upon Half-Pay since the last War, and are fit for Service, have received Orders to do Duty with the different Regiments in this Country; but, as their Number is pretty considerable, many of them have got Orders to repair to Vienna, in order that they may be incorporated in the Austrian Regiments.

Most of the Regiments in this Country are compleat, and those that are not they are very active in compleating.

Lieutenant General Plunkett has received Orders to conduct the Troops that are to go to the Camp in Bohemia; and they are to begin their March about the 12th or 14th of June.

The Marquis d'Ynse has got the late Prince de Ligne's Regiment.

Yesterday his Royal Highness went to Terveuren for a few Days, but will return about the Middle of next Week; and will soon return into the Country, to remain there till the Month of October.

Whitehall, May 10.

The King has been pleased to present John Hinchcliffe, Doctor in Divinity, to the Vicaridge of Greenwich in the County of Kent and Diocese of Rochester, void by the Death of Dr. Samuel Squire, late Bishop of St. David's, the last Incumbent.

St. James's, May 10, 1766.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, That John Trotter, formerly a Servant to John Bockett, Distiller, in the Borough, Southwark, but who was discharged from the said Service about Eleven Months since, was, on Thursday the 1st Instant, about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, found concealed, behind some Casks, in the Cellar of the said John Bockett's House in the Borough aforesaid; and that some Person or Persons, supposed to be his Accomplices, did, between One and Two o'Clock in the Morning of the 2d, attempt to pull out the Pin of the Shop Window-Shutters of the said John Bockett; from which, and sundry other Circumstances, it is apprehended, that the said John Trotter (who is now in Custody) had, together with his Accomplices, some evil Designs against the House and Property of the said John Bockett: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Attempts and supposed evil Designs, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the said John Trotter, who was actually found concealed as abovementioned) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

H. S. CONWAY.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said John Bockett does hereby promise a Reward of Ten Guineas to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as above excepted) to be paid by him upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.

John Bockett.
